

Don't Give Up!

Nowadays deaths due to weak kidneys are 75% more common than 20 years ago, according to the census. Overwork and worry are the causes. The kidneys can't keep up, and a slight kidney weakness is usually neglected.

If you have backache or urinary disorders, don't mistake the cause. Fight the danger. More care as to diet, habits, etc., and the use of Doan's Kidney Pills ought to bring quick relief.

A Colorado Case

Mrs. C. R. Foreman, 113 R. Eighth St., Canon City, Colo., says: "For three or four years I had rheumatic pains, dropsy and kidney complaint. My heart was affected and I was in bad shape. Medicine failed and all hope for my recovery was given up. I couldn't walk across the room and my whole body ached. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me as soon as I took them and continued use cured me. Whenever I have taken them since I have been benefited."

An Ominous Selection.

A Baltimore man tells a story of a minister who, rising to address his congregation, announced that the subject of his discourse would be "A Man's Wife."

"And now," he added, "we will first sing from the hymn, beginning: 'From every stormy wind that blows,

From every swelling tide of woes, There is a calm, a sure retreat— 'Tis found beneath the mercy seat.'"

And he couldn't imagine why the wives of the congregation present all looked daggers at him.—Baltimore American.

Neuralgia

There is no need to suffer the annoying, excruciating pain of neuralgia; Sloan's Liniment laid on gently will soothe the aching head like magic. Don't delay. Try it at once.

Hear What Others Say

"I have been a sufferer with Neuralgia for several years and have tried different liniments, but Sloan's Liniment is the best. I have tried it successfully. It has never failed."—F. H. Williams, Augusta, Ark.

Mrs. Ruth C. Claypool, Independence, Mo., writes: "A friend of mine told us about your Liniment. We have been using it for 12 years and think there is nothing like it. We use it on everything, suns, cuts, burns, bruises, sore throat, headache and on everything else. We can't get along without it. We think it is the best Liniment made."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

The Asylum's Advantage.

At the orphan asylum the childless Mrs. Hathaway, who had selected an infant for adoption, suddenly showed trepidation.

"Will I have to keep the baby if it doesn't suit my husband?" she asked, hesitatingly.

"Of course you won't have to keep it," responded the accommodating matron. "You can bring the kid back and exchange it any time. We're not arbitrary, like the stork."

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Don't Look Old! Try Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Gray, Faded, Lifeless Hair.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant. Adv.

Curious Cure.

In one of the back counties of Texas is a negro doctor who enjoys an extensive practice among the colored population.

A white physician accosted him on the road one day, saying:

"Well, Doctor Sam, where have you been?"

"Ben to see Bill Johnson, sah. He was wrastlin' wid Moses Jones and busted a blood vessel."

"Indeed! that's serious. What did you prescribe?"

"Oh, I fixed him all right, sah, wid alum and gum arabic. Alum was to draw de parts togedder and de gum to stick 'em." It may be interesting to add that Bill Johnson completely recovered.

Requisite for Optimism.

"What are the qualifications for membership in your international optimist club?" asked the philanthropist's friend.

"Well, in the first place you've got to speak English with an American accent."

The Alternative.

"Automobile has improved my appetite tremendously."

"That's good."

"Yes, but now I can't afford to eat."

If a man coaxes his wife to accompany him on a business trip it is a sign that the trip is going to be short.

OUR NATIONAL DISEASE Caused by Coffee.

Physicians know that drugs will not correct the evils caused by coffee and that the only remedy is to stop drinking it.

An Arkansas doctor says:

"I was a coffee drinker for many years and often thought that I could not do without it, but after years of suffering with our national malady, dyspepsia, I attributed it to the drinking of coffee, and after some thought, determined to use Postum for my morning drink."

"I had the Postum made carefully according to directions on the pkg. and found it just suited my taste."

"At first I used it only for breakfast, but I found myself getting so much better, that I had it at all meals, and I am pleased to say that I have been relieved of indigestion. I gained 19 pounds in 4 months and my general health is greatly improved."

"I must tell you of a young lady in Illinois. She had been in ill health for many years, the vital forces low, with but little pain. I wrote her of the good that Postum did me and advised her to try it."

"At the end of the year, she wrote me that she had gained 40 pounds in weight and felt like herself again."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled, 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

The cost per cup of both kinds is about the same.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

GOOD JOKES

WISE GIRL.

Tom—If I kiss you will you call your mother?

Tess—Not unless you want to kiss the whole family.

Sole.

The barefoot dancer I prefer. This secret I'll impart: For I have found that she puts her whole sole into her art.

Beyond Its Power.

"That rich Mrs. Stiggins doesn't speak to me now. She used to be my next-door neighbor—and they were awfully common."

"Well, there are some things money can't do."

"What?"

"Make old-time neighbors forget the early days."

Right on Her Job.

Muggins—They tell me Mrs. Henpeck is a neat and tidy housekeeper. Guggins—Why, yes; her husband can't even drop a remark at home but what she picks it up immediately.

Too Effective.

"But how did he happen to get engaged to the girl if he doesn't love her?"

"Why, he says he was convincing when he merely meant to be plausible."—Judge.

Her Role.

"What part do you suppose that old screw's young bride is going to play in his life?"

"Judging from her looks, I think she is going to be something of a screw-driver."

MUTUALLY UNINTELLIGIBLE.

Hodge—Bronson and his wife seem to have a deep respect for each other's superior wisdom.

Dodge—Yes. He talks to her about nothing but football and she talks to him about nothing but fashions.

Office Regulations.

Collector—See here, I have written you a dozen letters about that bill you owe my firm, and you haven't even acknowledged them.

Country Editor—Were they written on both sides of the sheet?

Collector—Of course.

Country Editor—All such communications go into the waste basket without being read.—Stray Stories.

Would Not Sound Well.

Clara—The paper says that in Italy they have begun to number the clocks from one to twenty-four, beginning at one o'clock in the morning.

Dora—That's horrid. Just imagine how pa would look if we had to tell him that Arthur and Gus stayed out until twenty-three o'clock.—New York Weekly.

A Dreadful Game.

Ethel—I do so love football.

Betty—I don't. I detest it. Jack's gone and got his collar bone broken, and I can't put my head on his shoulder for a month.

CHANCE OVERLOOKED.

"What do you think?" exclaimed Mrs. Twobble. "While the Belgian relief committee was holding an important meeting yesterday afternoon in my drawing-room a ragged woman came to the house and asked for food. She had a baby in her arms, too!"

"What did you do?" asked Mrs. Cadson.

"Sent her about her business, of course! I was reading my report to the committee and had no time to bother with stray beggars."

Evidences of Bravery.

"Some of those old-time statesmen were remarkable whiskers," said the observant person.

"They weren't very ornamental," rejoined Miss Cayenne.

"Nor useful."

"I'm not so sure of that. They indicated great moral courage. They proved the indifference of their wearers to the frivolities of popular comment."

A Necessity.

"You seem to have a large number of picturesque characters about here," said the tourist.

"We have to have 'em," answered the proprietor of a western hotel, "for travelers who come here expecting to find 'local color.' All these Indians and cowboys you see are paid by us to loaf about the premises and keep within easy range of kodaks."

PERPETUAL BONDAGE.

Mrs. Henry Peck—I rule my house absolutely. When I am at home Mr. Peck minds me implicitly.

Mrs. Herdso—What does he do when you are away?

Mrs. Peck—When I am not at home he minds the baby.

Not Deliberately Chosen.

"We are a swift, commercial race"—A critic sadly said it. "While poverty is no disgrace, it's no especial credit."

Not So Easily Caught.

Miss Thirty-Eight (cooly)—I had a strange dream the other night, Mr. Jones. I dreamed—only think!—that you and I were married and on our wedding four. You don't know how real it seemed. Did you dream the same thing, too?

He (firmly)—No. Miss Thirty-Eight, I did not. In fact, I haven't had the nightmare for a good many years.—Stray Stories.

Raising the Cash.

"Wasn't the doctor's decision that an operation was necessary in that case made rather suddenly?"

"Well, yes. You see, his wife wanted to go to Europe."

Lost Business.

"This is a losing year for Europe."

"Yes—the war."

"Well, the war is a bad thing on its own account, but it has also caused some 40,000,000 prospective tourists to abandon contemplated trips abroad."

Interests Them All.

"What can I put into my shop window to attract attention?"

"Nothing simpler, my boy. Just keep a good mirror in the window all the time."

Too True.

"Every nation has signed extradition treaties with this country," observed the old fogey. "Where can a criminal now go and find safety?"

"New York," replied the grouch.

Comes About Naturally.

"Why do so many actresses get the big head?"

"Well, I suppose they get to believing what their press agents say about 'em.'—Kansas City Journal

ENDS DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" cures sick, sour stomachs in five minutes—Time It!

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction.

It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.—Adv.

Proverb Didn't Apply.

Mrs. Brown was in the kitchen shipping Nora, the cook, prepare supper.

"It's an old saying," she remarked to Nora, "that 'too many cooks spoil the broth.' What do you think?"

"Sure, mum," she replied, "there's nothing to worry about. There's only one cook here."—National Monthly.

PHYSICAL WRECK RESTORED TO HEALTH BY GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY.

I feel it my duty to furnish you with my testimonial as to what your remedy Swamp-Root did for me when I was a physical wreck from kidney and bladder trouble.

Some years ago I was not able to do any work and could only just creep around and am satisfied that had it not been for Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I would not have lived. After using the preparation for one month I was able to work some and when I had used $8.00 worth of Swamp-Root I could do a good day's work. I used about $10.00 worth altogether and would not take $10,000 for the good that it did me. I consider it a God-send to suffering humanity for the diseases for which you recommend it and have recommended it to many sufferers.

N. L. HUGGINS,

Wells, Ark.

Personally appeared before me this 20th of September, 1909, N. L. Huggins, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Conservative Estimate.

Jem Snedeker, an East Tennessee farmer, would only admit that the sun had a bright side by speculating that the other side was probably dark. The preacher, looking over Jem's farm, said that the wheat crop looked fine and plentiful. But Jem put it this way:

"It's a pretty good crop, what there is of it—an' there's right smart of it, sech as it is!"
